QUEBEC

THERE shall be in the province of Quebec seventy-four electoral districts, named and described as follows, each of which shall return one member.

Reference to "county" signifies a "municipal county" as named and described in the Territorial Division Act of the Revised Statutes of the Province of Quebec.

The cities, towns, and local municipalities comprise all their territories, including islands, unless otherwise described.

The words street, avenue, road, access road, boulevard, canal, and river signify the median line thereof, except where otherwise specified.

Wherever any word or expression is used to denote the name of any territorial division, such word or expression shall indicate the territorial division as it existed or was bounded on the 15th day of November, 1955.
