

14-15 GEORGE V.

CHAP. 63.

An Act to readjust the Representation in the House of Commons.

[Assented to 19th July, 1924.]

WHEREAS the results of the census of 1921 necessitate a readjustment of the representation in the House of Commons, pursuant to the provisions of The British North America Act, 1867, and the other statutes in that behalf: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

R.S., c. 5;
1907, c. 41;
1914, c. 51;
1915, c. 19;
1919, c. 6.

1. This Act may be cited as The Representation Act, Short title. 1924.

2. The House of Commons shall consist of two hundred and forty-five members, of whom eighty-two shall be elected for the province of Ontario, sixty-five for the province of Quebec, fourteen for the province of Nova Scotia, eleven for the province of New Brunswick, seventeen for the province of Manitoba, fourteen for the province of British Columbia, four for the province of Prince Edward Island, twenty-one for the province of Saskatchewan, sixteen for the province of Alberta, and one for the Yukon Territory.

Number of Members.

3. The said provinces and territory respectively shall, for the purposes of the election of members to serve in the House of Commons, be divided into electoral districts, and be represented as provided in the schedule to this Act.

Division into electoral districts.

4. The whole of that part of the said schedule relating to any province shall be read together, and shall, so far as possible, be construed as including the whole of such province in some one or other of the electoral districts therein described, the description of each electoral district being accordingly construed as intended, unless the contrary is expressed, to include the whole of the contained area, whether particularly mentioned or not, and to include also any area partly surrounded by the areas expressly described which appears to have been intended to be included. In any doubtful case the Chief Electoral Officer shall finally determine of what electoral district, if any, any area not expressly referred to was intended to form part, and shall, within the first fifteen days after the session of Parliament next following any such determination, report the same, with the reasons therefor, to the Speaker of the House of Commons.

5. Wherever in the said schedule any word or expression is used to denote the name of any territorial division, such word or expression shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as indicating such territorial division as it exists and is bounded at the date of the passing of this Act.

6. Wherever in the said schedule a municipality or place is wrongfully referred to as a city, or a town, or a village, but there is within the territorial limits of the electoral district, in the description of which the reference occurs, a municipality or place of the same name which is a city, or a town, or a village, but is not of the class,—city, town or village, as the case may be,—specified in the schedule, the reference shall be taken to be to that municipality or place.

7. This Act shall take effect only upon the dissolution of the present Parliament.
